

I am very happy with the way the NJ law for Do Not Call is working. Don't monkey with it, especially to weaken it. I have a right to peace and not receive junk calls just because I have a phone. Let whoever wants more junk calls let the telemarketers know so they can concentrate there and leave me alone